

DIVERSITY IN PHILOSOPHY SYMPOSIUM

'NEW ROUTES TO DIVERSITY IN PHILOSOPHY: CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE PACIFIC AND AUSTRALASIA'

AUCKLAND, 18-19 AUGUST 2017
(REGISTRATIONS OPEN EARLY 2017)

A MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY AND MASSEY UNIVERSITY JOINT SYMPOSIUM

What are the aims and practices of philosophies/ers within the Pacific and Australasia?

How do philosophies/ers in the region contribute to solving social and global justice issues?

What do Pacific and Australasian philosophies/ers contribute to global conversations about, and movements towards, diversifying academic philosophy?

The event brings internationally recognized philosophers into conversation with Pacific and Australasian philosophers and practitioners to consider these and other key questions in philosophy.

Confirmed Speakers:

Charles Royal (Te Papa), Kristie Dotson (Michigan State University), Kyle Whyte (Michigan State University), Amy Olberding (University of Oklahoma), Linda Smith (Waikato University)

For more information contact:
Krushil Watene, K.Watene@massey.ac.nz

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

